This book is dedicated to

Our faculty colleagues, whose story this is, and whose generosity allowed us to tell it.

The administrators on all our campuses who have supported and funded the writing-across-the-curriculum effort, especially, Hoke L. Smith, president of Towson State University, and Patricia Plante and Robert Caret, provosts; Joseph Steger, president of the University of Cincinnati, Norman Baker and David Hartleb, provosts, and Anthony Perzigian, acting provost; Arthur De Jong and William Robinson, Whitworth College presidents, Darrell Guder, dean of Academic Affairs, Kenneth Shipps, provost, with special appreciation to Tammy Reid, associate dean, co-writer of the original CAPHE grant, and an effective, longtime supporter of WAC.

The staff members and student assistants in WAC offices whose daily labor undergirds all we do in WAC.

And finally, our personal friends and our families, who have supported and encouraged us in the long, long run that was this project.
